

I am writing to support you in your efforts to make things a little easier for small radio stations like WPVM in Asheville, NC. We really need your help in our unique situation here, in a highly mountainous region. WPVM's signal has great interference from Knoxville, because of the mountainous landscape. The mountainous landscape also increases the need to be able to have a translator, in order to get decent broadcast. Please help out these LPFM stations! Thanks. Susan Ervin